

The EUROPALIA INDONESIA Festival Centre opens its doors !

The festive kick-off to the EUROPALIA INDONESIA Festival Centre coincides with car-free Sunday in Brussels. Come and enjoy this first introduction to the Indonesian culture, and taste the delicious coffee and other delicacies from the archipelago. Perfect for a family outing!

11:00 > 18:00 Wayang kulit shadow puppet workshop
11:00, 13:30 & 16:00 Gamelan concert and traditional dances
12:15, 13:45 & 15:45 Gamelan and kecak workshop

Sunday 17 09 '17 (car-free Sunday)

11:00 > 18:00

Bâtiment Dynastie

Mont des Arts, B-1000 Brussels

---

Only 25 days left before the start of the festival.
We hope this little teaser will whet your appetite !

Coming soon

EXPO
Iswanto Hartono @ Oude Kerk

Artist Iswanto Hartono connects the history of the Oude Kerk with Indonesia's colonial past. The church contains many decorated graves of 'national heroes', who sailed out to colonise the world. They serve as inspiration for Hartono's new creation, and make us aware of the colonial past, that is so often consciously forgotten.

29 09 > 15 11 '17
Oude Kerk
Oudekerksplein 23
NL-1012 GX Amsterdam
www.oudekerk.nl

EXPO
Ikat . Batik - Réserve de sens
@ Les Drapiers

Through gorgeous and colourful textiles, discover the batik and ikat, two traditional Indonesian dyeing techniques to add motives on clothes.

21 10 '17 > 21 01 '18
Galerie Les Drapiers
Rue Hors Château 68
B-4000 Liège
www.lesdrapiers.be

Thank you for playing with the National Lottery. In doing so, you are helping to support cultural projects.

